

CHILDREN'S UNIVERSITY SCOTLAND

International Women's Day Challenge

Your mission: Write a letter to a woman or girl who is a strong role model for you. Let them know that their achievements are important to you and tell them how they inspire you.

Do you have a dream or goal for the future? Share this with your role model. Hint: if their achievements are connected to your goal then tell them about it!

Tell them two actions you will take this year to help you achieve your goal. Use this page to plan your letter, then turn over and get writing.

What's the name of your inspirational woman or girl?
What has she achieved (big or small)?
Why is her achievement important to you? <small>Was it in a subject that interests you? Does she inspire you to try something new?</small>
Why is she a role model for you?
What's a goal you have for the future?	<hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/>
Write down two actions you will take this year to work towards achieving your goal?	Action 1: <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> Action 2: <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/>

Now write your letter!

Use your answers from page 1 as inspiration to write your letter.

Dear _____

What is International Women's Day?

International Women's Day is celebrated on the 8th March.

It is a day to focus on the contributions women make to our world, celebrating women's achievements and inspiring all women and girls to aim high.

Some people also use the day to raise awareness about gender inequality and the challenges women face, and take action for change.

Collecting your credit

Complete this activity sheet

Show your letter to your teacher and ask them to sign your passport.

Log on to cus-aspire.com and search for 'International Women's Day Challenge' to log your credit online.

